Course Description:

Intermediate Korean 201 aims at developing students' basic communicative skills for everyday tasks and situations. At the end of the course, students will be able to apply the previously learned grammatical structures and vocabulary items creatively to their own speaking and writing. The course also introduces students to Chinese characters 한자 at an elementary level.

Learning Goals:

The course also satisfies the following Asian Languages and Cultures Departmental Learning Goals for Korean majors and minors:

- Majors will be able to demonstrate substantial knowledge of Korean language, literature, and culture and pursue advanced study and/or employment in a capacity requiring such linguistic skill and cultural knowledge.
- Minors will be able to communicate effectively (listening, speaking, and writing) in Korean and to read vernacular materials appropriate to the student's area of specialization; achieve advanced-low or advanced speaking, reading, and writing competency (based on the guidelines of the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages); demonstrate practical skills in using Korean for translation, interpretation, etc.; use effectively tools (reference works, etc.) and technology appropriate to learning Korean; and analyze and interpret texts and relate relevant issues to other areas in the humanities.

Course Requirements and Grading Policy:

(1) Attendance and Class Participation:

- You are expected to attend every class and arrive on time. Poor attendance, frequent lateness and early departure will affect your grade. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class Being tardy to class three times or leaving class early three times will count as an absence. Missing a class for more than 40 minutes will be also considered one absence. If your absences exceed 2 classes (3 and more absences), you will not receive an A regardless of your semester scores. If your absences exceed 6 classes (7 and more absences), you may fail the course.

- Each absence beyond two unexcused absences will result in -1.2 points deduction in your attendance score.
- Low attendance and use of digital devices (Laptops, MP3 players and cellular phones) will also cause deduction in participation scores without warning. Digital devices must be turned off during class.
- You may not leave the classroom during class without the instructor's permission.
- It is YOUR responsibility to keep up with what you have missed for absences.

(2) Homework(10%):

- You should have done homework assignments before class to participate fully in the classroom activities.
- Each homework assignment should be re-submitted after correcting the errors marked by the instructor during the first submission. This re-do submission is due by the day indicated on the schedule.
- Those submitted later but before the next class starts will earn 80% of the credit. Those submitted on the following class will earn 70% of the credit. Those submitted after the following class but before re-do submission due date will earn 50% of the credit. Any assignments submitted after that will not be accepted. (If you cannot submit your homework because of your absence, you may submit it at the beginning of the next class with full credit.)

ONLINE ASSIGNMENTS

- Instead of weekly language lab visit, you are required to complete weekly assignments given by instructor. Visit Sakai course site for details.

(3) Quizzes:

- There will be one vocabulary quiz and one lesson quiz for each lesson. Two 한자 quizzes will be given throughout the semester.
- There will be no make-up for a missed quiz. Missing a quiz is the equivalent of a zero (0). If you plan to miss the class on the day of quizzes, you may take the quiz in advance with instructor's permission. For missed midterms, you will be allowed for a make-up with only 80% of what you make.
- 한자Quiz: 한자 will be covered on Mondays and Thursdays. Only reading and meaning of each 한자 will be tested.

- (4) Visit the Sakai course site for announcements. Download the audio files from <http://www.kleartextbook.com>

Note on Attendance:

In accordance with Rutgers University regulations, attendance is expected at all regularly scheduled meetings of a course and individual courses may set policies for maximum absences. If you expect to miss classes, please use the University absence reporting website <https://sims.rutgers.edu/ssra/> to indicate the date and reason for your absence.

In addition to the university attendance policy (<http://www.sasundergrad.rutgers.edu/academics/courses/registration-and-course-policies/attendance-and-cancellation-of-class>), the course stipulates the following attendance policy:

- (1) If your absences exceed 2 classes, you will not receive an A regardless of your semester scores. If your absences exceed 6 classes, you may fail the course.
- (2) Other than the excused absences officially stipulated by the university attendance policy, there will be no make-up for quizzes and there will be penalty for the make-up of missed midterm and final exams

Academic Integrity:

Students must abide by the Rutgers Academic Integrity Policy (Honor Code). Violations of the Honor Code include: cheating, inventing false data, plagiarism, denying others access to information or material, and facilitating violations of academic integrity. Review the policy at: <http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu/> If you are ever caught violating the Honor Code (such as copying other students' assignments, quizzes, tests or exams and having others do your homework assignments) you will face severe grade reduction and possible disciplinary action.

Accommodations for special needs:

It is the policy of Rutgers to make reasonable academic accommodations for qualified individuals with disabilities. Students with disabilities requesting accommodations must follow the procedures outlined at the Office of Disability Services (<https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/applying-for-services>).

Final Exam: Dec 19, 2019 (12:00 PM - 3:00 PM), SC 120 | The final exam will be held according to the University schedule. Please check your exam schedule at: <http://finalexams.rutgers.edu>
